A Queer Transaction. Sir Arthur Sullivan discovered at Monte Carlo one time that certain restaurant proprietors had a way of reg-ulating their charges with the appear-ance and standing of their customers. when lunching alone, Sir Arthur was in the habit of frequenting one particular place where he knew to a centime what the prices were.

One day there sat at the table adjoining his come.

One day there sat at the table adjoining his own a wealthy Russian nobleman. Upon asking for his bill the composer found that the prices were exorbitantly high. He sent for the proprietor and demanded an explanation.

The man, an Italian, recognized Sireston, and industrial client, and Arthur as an influential client and was profuse to his apologies. He explained that the mistake lay with the cashier. Going over the items to which exception was taken, the proprietor seid: "The couvert I take him off directly, and the butter I charge him to the grand duke. He not notice it."

The idea of charging to the grand dake an item against whose extortionate price another customer protested elways struck the great composer as a decidedly humorous way of getting out

A Royal Road to Wealth. When a certain late shah of Persia became temporarily embarrassed for money, he had quite a unique method of filling his purse. He would go to the market, where, after examining the shops, he would select one and, turning to the proprietor, would say, "Will you take me in as a partner in your business for the day?" The of-fer was, of course, eagerly accepted. The shah would take his seat near the shop entrance and say to his courtiers, whom he always took with him on these occasions: "Now, I'm salesman. Who'll buy?" The latter, not daring to refuse the offers of the royal mer-chant, set about clearing the shop of its contents, paying sometimes £50 for goods that were not worth £10. No one was allowed to beat down prices purchases. When everything was sold, the shah had a list of the cost price of each article made out and loyally shared with the shopkeeper the amount of the profit realized.

It is related of a clergyman who was the father of a charming and beauti-ful daughter that one day while preparing his Sunday sermon he was sud denly called away from his desk on a mission of mercy. The sentence at which he left off was this: "I never see a young man of splendid physique and the promise of a glorious manhood al-most realized but my heart is filled with rapture and delight."

His daughter, happening to enter the study, saw the sermon and read the Sitting down, she wrote underneath, "My sentiments, papa, exact-

The Word Bible.

The word Bible furnishes a striking instance of a word's rise from very low to high estate. To the bulk of English speaking folk it now means the book of books. In Chaucer's day It meant any book whatever or scrollto speak by the card lest equivocat undo us. Tracing the word Bible straight home, we find it as bublos, but another name for the papyrus reed of Egypt-National Review.

A Series of Failures. A ceroner's jury in Ireland delivered the following verdict on the sudden death of a merchant who had recently failed in business: "We, the jury, find from the new doctor's statement that the deceased came to his death from heart failure super-induced by business failure, which was caused by speculation failure, which was the result of failure to see far

Hear the Other Side. Hear the other side. Don't believe too fully any man's version. His neighbor will come and search him out. Likewise, if people form a hasty judgment of you, wait patiently till they hear the other side. Probably they will not need to hear it from you. If so, it is a great saving to your self

A Typical South African Store. O. R. Larson, of Bay Villa, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a re-cord." For sale by Richard Gibson

Forty Years' Torture.

To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well cause the gratitude of any one. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. Haney, Genera O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had anticred 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases, Beware of counterfeits. For salvey E. S. Leudbeater & Sons.

Save the Children

All stomach and bowel troubles in child or adult are due to a single cause—Indigestion.

Flux, colic, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, dysentery and all complaints of like nature, are the result of undigested foods fermenting in the stomach. The only way to prevent fever and to cure such troubles without injury to the membranes lining the stomach is to restore perfect digestion.

KODOL Digests

What You Eat

Kodol is the new discovery which cures all stomach and bowel troubles by removing the cause. This famous remedy checks fermentation, cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach. Kodol digests all classes of food and gives to the body all of the nourishment, health and strength it contains.

"Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just the thing for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It has helped me more than anything else in a long standing case of catarrh of the stomach."—Oscar king, Cherry Vailey, N. F. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold by all dealers.
